

I don't want the FCC to diminish the effectiveness of Indiana Telephone Privacy Law. I used to receive an average of 2 unwanted solicitations per week and often those would be from a 'spiritualist' or psychic that I wanted nothing to do with. She was impossible to get rid of because she would leave messages on my machine and would have required me to phone long distance to ask to be removed from her calling list.